

NUTRITION CLUSTER

COVID-19 Response Snapshot

Report No.09

January to May 2021

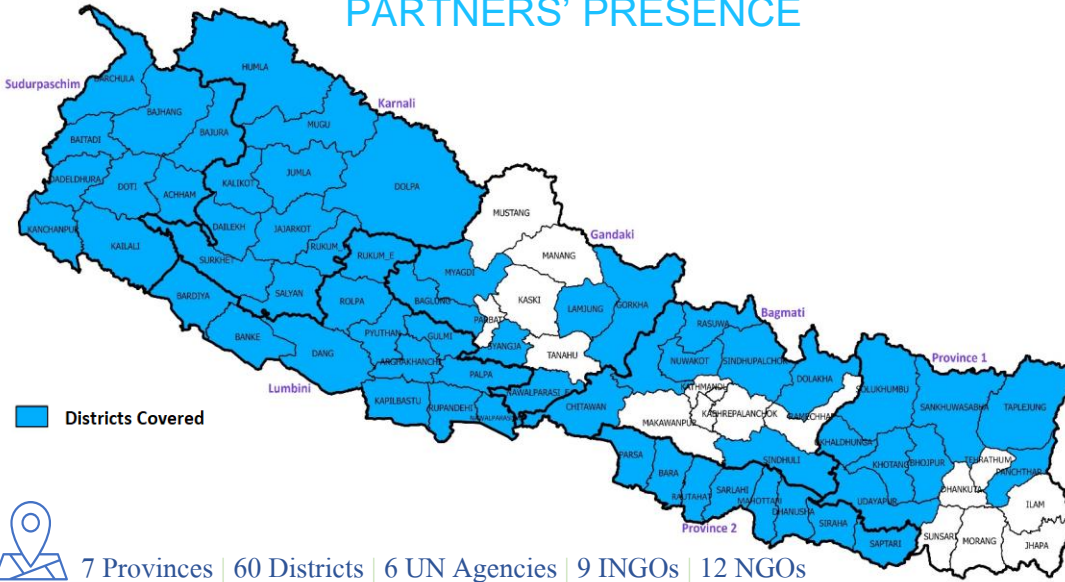

7,490

children with Severe Acute Malnutrition (SAM) treated

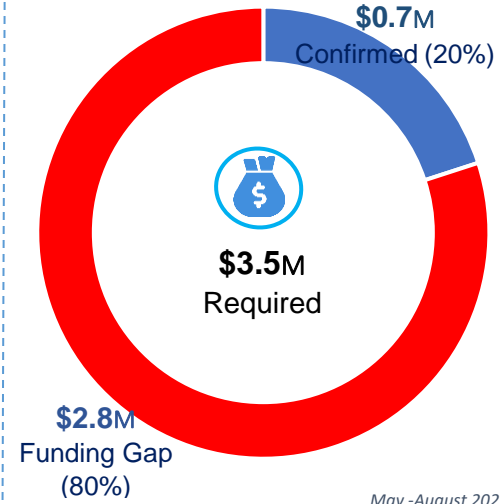

416,530

households reached with COVID-19 and nutrition messages through 119 FM stations

PARTNERS' PRESENCE

FUNDING

KEY ACHIEVEMENTS

ALL 7 provinces have functional Health and Nutrition Clusters

416,530 households reached with nutrition messages through radio programmes

66,597 pregnant and lactating women reached via telephone counselling on breastfeeding

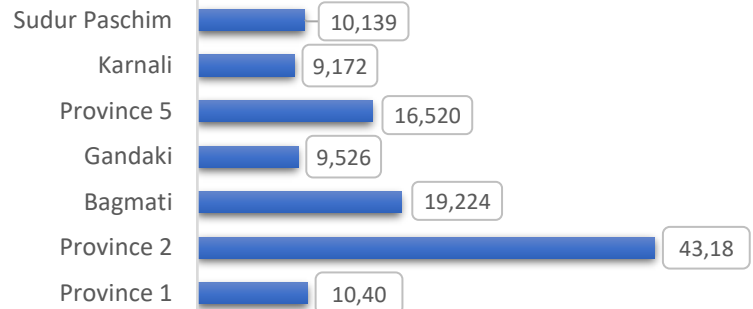

5,844 children aged 6-23 months received supercereal plus

3,125 pregnant and lactating women received supercereal

SAM BURDEN

KEY STRATEGIES

1 Prevention and treatment of SAM cases

2 Breastfeeding counselling through telephone

3 Distribution of supercereal plus and micro-nutrient

4 Behaviour change communication messages on nutrition through radios